Porky's Fun Box

The innovative straw box for more animal welfare

NEW

The flexible fun box is an interactive experience offering the animal long-lasting and welcome change. The animals remove the straw from four adjustable openings. Depending on straw type various adjustments ensure that animals get hold of only single stalks. The box can be mounted with a three-point chain and is variable in height. The pipe support can be fixed to the bay partition panels allowing easy refilling when standing on the corridor.

In brief:

- Adjustable height - flexible use
- Adjustable dosing - depending on type of straw
- for animal welfare
